1. Three biplanes were in the hangar at the MAGDEBURG-South (M 53/D 69) airfield on 3 August 1949. The hangar had been reconditioned in makeshift fashion. A truck, [REDACTED] entered the airfield with a load of gasoline barrels. The airfield personnel numbered about fifteen air force soldiers and five soldiers wearing red-bordered, black epaulets. They were quartered in a settlement on Hannemannstrasse north of the airfield. [REDACTED] A telephone line led from the settlement to the airfield.
2. The entire landing field of the MAGDEBURG-East (M 53/Y 60) airfield was under cultivation. Six new farms had been established on the northern field section. The airfield barracks were occupied by German civilians.
